Secrecy--and the Courts

To keep you up to date on the actions we are taking with respect to prosecuting people who violate their secrecy agreements or release secrets, the present status is:

- Former employee Frank Snepp has been convicted of violating the contract of his Secrecy Agreement by the District Court in Alexandria. He has appealed this finding. It is expected that his appeal will be heard by the Appeals Court in ____ very shortly.
- Former employee William Kampiles, who was accused of espionage in the form of delivering^a/classified document to the Soviet Union, is presently on trial in Hammond, Indiana.
